

CYCLING TOUR OF RUTLAND
18 APRIL 2024

A journey of experiences

Embark on a Tour of Rutland that transcends the ordinary, exploring the picturesque landscape of Britain's smallest and most enchanting county, all with an exclusive pro-rider touch.

Rutland, which covers 4,200 acres of stunning countryside invites you to experience its grand estates, specimen planting, rolling hills and reservoirs, all against the backdrop of idyllic villages.

Our tour covers 75 miles of Rutland's unrivalled landscapes, commencing in the quaint village of Medbourne. Brace yourself for the exhilarating challenge that is the Nevill Holt climb, followed by a swift descent to the iconic Devil's Staircase, before tracing scenic contours around Eyebrook Reservoir. Re-fuel with a rider's brunch at the renowned cycling haven, Café Ventoux, setting the stage for the next ascent - Nosely Hill.

Guided by professional riders, this mini tour is an invaluable opportunity to draw insights from their expertise with pro tips along the way. Receive route and elevation information together with real-time weather updates via software used by teams at the highest level in events such as the Tour de France. Technical support throughout the day will be provided, together with a sweeper vehicle, ensuring full support in the event of any technical issues.

Rutland is without doubt England’s answer to Tuscany! The county is tiny, but what it lacks in size, it makes up for with some of the most dramatic topography. Anyone who says Leicestershire and surrounding roads are flat, honestly haven’t studied their Garmin! A must ride!
